

The conference not to miss.....

UNLOCKING HAMPSHIRE'S PAST

Celebrating the County's Historians & Archaeologists
Saturday 19th September 2026, from 9:30 for 10:00 start, to 16:30.

St Peter's Pastoral Centre, Jewry St, Winchester, SO23 8RY

- Rev Sir William Cope, whose collection is now in Southampton University Library
- An opportunity to learn more about a wealth of Hampshire's history, much published with free access at: hantsfieldclub.org.uk/publications.

■ New insights into the use of the rich documentary and audiovisual resources of local archives in record offices, colleges and universities.

■ An important conference, prompted by the 'Celebrating Hampshire Historians' project - a new beginning to local studies in the county.

■ Launch of: Celebrating Hampshire Historians: Their Lives and Works, edited by. Barry Shurlock, Hampshire Field Club, about 448 pages. Profiles of 229 Hampshire historians.

HFC Members: £15.00; Non-members: £20.00.

Stallholders: £20.00, table & one attendee, £30 for two.

To book: visit: <https://www.ticketsource.com/hantsfieldclub>, or email Mike Broderick: CHH-Conference@hantsfieldclub.org.uk.

PROGRAMME

A cast of hundreds: they wrote the county's story – Barry Shurlock

Popularisation – 'It happened in Hampshire', and much else – Roger Ottewill

Cope and other local history collections at the University of Southampton – Karen Robson & Jenny Ruthven

Victoria County History of Hampshire: then and now – Jean Morrin

Churchmen – a cohort of pioneering local historians - Tom Watson

Archaeology and history – two soul-mates – David Allen

Not 'just' home movies: interrogating the regional moving image archive - Zoë Viney Burgess

Hampshire's oldest local history group: the story of Milford-on-Sea – Barry Jolly

